The President's Newsletter

Hello everybody! What a super successful 2012 NECGA Convention...as you'll see when you read through this letter and see the rest of our bulletin. Whew! Where to start?

Thursday night, pizza night... it was a big hit with an intimate group of club members attending... Here's a picture of Steve enjoying his slice along with Jocelyne, Pam, Yvette, Paul, Robin, Moe, Emil and Brian.

We had a full house for our Stump Tom session. Everyone did their best to "stump" him, but nobody could.

Our club really stepped up to the plate this year. Gary Sullivan, our treasurer did the club proud...he was our banquet and seminar speaker. Everyone loved his talk on "Dinner for 6" and the amount of glass that was present was beautiful in color and iridescence.

Christina from New Hampshire came on Friday night, attending our banquet dinner. She brought along a new addition to her collection...a beautiful 3 & 1 edge Fanciful bowl. The color was out of this world. John & Judy Gosselin from Canada came down to our convention for the first time and joined our club. They told me they had a really good time.

Thanks again to everyone that helped our 2012 Convention a success...food donations, mini auction items, picture taking, etc. etc. On that note, Jocelyne Granger did a super job taking pictures and putting together a collage of photos so we have lots of 2012 NECGA memories. Norm, Steve, Kris, etc. also take photos.

We can only put so much in the bulletin, so we've placed a bunch on the website... so check it out...

www.necga.com. By the way, the room displays were awesome this year...so look them up.

A follow up convention update will be discussed at the next meeting. Hope you all can attend.

Please note, a nomination ballot has been included in this package. Each member will be asked to vote for 2 board of directors, as Louie Carpick and John Bradfield's terms are ending. At the convention, nominations were taken and Louie Carpick was re-nominated along with Henry Simonis, Steve Lindquist and Paul Berube. Please mail the ballots to Kris Dorais before October 14th or bring them to the meeting at which time 2 new board members will be elected.

HOPE TO SEE YOU ON OCTOBER 14TH FOR CHILI, CORNBREAD, ETC!

Sincerely, Don Dorais, President

NECGA New Members

John & Judy Gosselin from Ontario, Canada!

Welcome Aboard!

Notes from the Sun., Aug. 12th meeting.

Present at the meeting: Kris & Don, Gary Sullivan, Steve Lindquist, Louie & Charlotte, Bruce & Anna, Norm, Paul & Yvette Berube, Hetty Orringer

Show & Tell took place after lunch and the meeting immediately started at 1:35 p.m.

Basically, the whole meeting was a convention update. President Don reported that we had close to 40 rooms and the banquet meals had yet to meet the quota. A motion was made to keep the card game that Bob Preseau organizes as a fundraiser for the club. Prizes will be needed.

A reminder that there will be prizes for room displays. Mini auction items needed, along with food for the hospitality room.

Bruce and Anna volunteered to open the room on Thursday afternoon. Pizza will be ordered for Thursday night.

Gary passed around a list of colors that he needs for his seminar talk on colors. Final schedule was finalized. Kris will make copies and mail them to Bruce and Anna. Lanyards will be brought to the convention and Kris will be typing up the schedule to fit them and email them to Steve. They will be passed out at the convention. Everything seems to be in place.

Meeting adjourned at 2:40 a.m.

Hi Everyone,

This story starts with a phone call from my best friend Moe Myers. He told me he had bought a Five Heart's Compote off of Bob Anderson from Russell, Ontario and he was waiting to receive the total cost including postage. Bob had not gotten back to him in over a week so he was wondering if I could get in contact with him and I did. When talking with Bob, he said if I wanted I could pick up the compote for Moe and in that way he would save on the shipping costs. By the way, Moe is a member of the NECGA and lives in Tamworth, New Hampshire. Since I was only forty minutes away, I said, be seeing him in September at the NECGA Convention. After I got the OK from Moe, I told Bob that I would be at his house on Saturday morning to pick up his purple five heart's compote.....That's had A LOT!!!!!!!!!!!!!! of other carnival glass FOR SALE.....

You know what that means EH!!!!!!!!!!!! I called Moe back and invited him to come with me to Bob's house an air show and could not make it but Moe had to go to and wished me good luck on the carnival glass. Well I wasn't disappointed!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Bob had some BEAUTIFUL sale. He is selling his something smaller in his E-Mail address and buying glass and OLD the cabinets are pieces I bought off they are very NICE

2:) Ice Blue Opal Northwood.. 3:) Dugan Wishbone and Spades DROP DEAD GORGEOUS..4:) ELECTRIC PURPLE Sauce Bowl by Dugan Wishbone and Spades also a GORGEOUS bowl....

Bob and his wife opened their doors to their house for my wife and I to see their collection and share their stories with us. What GREAT people they are. As I said before CARNIVAL GLASS PEOPLE ARE THE BEST!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

P.S. I'll tell you of a few pieces that he has to get your JUICES flowing!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Christmas Compote by Dugan in Marigold, Hattie Rosebowl by Imperial in PURPLE and one in Marigold, Wishbone and Spades CHOP PLATE in Purple.... Peacock at the URN Master ICS Bowls by Northwood in ICE GREEN and PURPLE..... and on and on.....

IMPERIAL 474 COMPOTE by Greg Dilian

Several years ago, I found a rather beautiful piece of Carnival Glass at sale and it took me awhile, as I still rather new in collecting

a yard
was

Carnival and had relatively few pieces, to determine what it was. Well, after scouring through Edwards book, I determined that it was the Imperial 474 pattern. Further research indicated that the pattern was reproduced in the 60's or 70's. However, this one was not signed with an IG and from a picture of a newer one determined that mine was indeed old. In fact, I learned that my purple 474 compote was extremely rare and very few exist. It is, in fact, the one pictured in Carl Burns' book on Imperial Carnival Glass.

The other night, I received an email from Dr. Larry Keig, showing me a newer 474 purple compote being sold on ebay as pre-1940 Carnival Glass. Larry had emailed the seller asking if it was signed and the answer was, yes it was. However, in this case, there were other ways to ascertain the age of the piece without asking or looking for an IG trademark.

The newer 474 compotes have a round base and a stippled bottom where the IG can be found. They are very heavy, as well. There is also a Peacock Tail-like pattern on the interior of the bowl. The interior pattern and the shape of the base are the telltale signs one can look for without even picking the piece up to see if there is an IG. These were reproduced by Imperial in amethyst, red, marigold and smoke. I also remember seeing a green one somewhere. A vase and a mug were the only other pieces with the 474 pattern that was issued in the 60-70's. Blue and smoke water sets were also made for special orders.

The older 474 compotes have an octagonal base. There is a star pattern molded on the bottom of the base. The interior is plain. My purple one has the wonderful Imperial purple iridescence that drew me to that company's glass when I started collecting over 23 years ago. Marigold and green were the only other colors made in this shape back then.

So the next time you go into an antique mall and see a 474 compote on the shelf, you won't need to pick it up to see if it has an IG molded into the base. Just check for an interior pattern and/or see if the base is round. If so, it is a repro. But on that rare occasion when you see one with a plain interior and octagonal base, grab it! Tom Burns said he has never seen a purple one and I have seen one other and that now lives in Australia. In all the years I checked, back to 1989, only one purple one has ever appeared in Mordini's price guide. That was at a Wroda auction in 2004 and the price was $450.
